DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-10, 22, 13-21, 23-24, 27-37, 40-41, 48, 42-47, 49-50 and 53 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Blair, US PAT No. 6,778,495 B1, discloses a method and system called "Combining multilink and IP per-destination load balancing over a multilink bundle." Blair does not teach or fairly suggest the following features, which are cited in independent claims of the present application:

1. A method for transmitting a stream of data over a channel made up of a plurality of subchannels having respective subchannel rates, the method comprising:

partitioning the data among the subchannels, such that responsive to the respective subchannel rates, successive words of the data, including at least first, second and third words in succession, are mapped to the subchannels in alternation, whereby the first word is mapped to a first subchannel, the second word is mapped to second subchannel, and the third word is mapped to one of the first subchannel and a third subchannel;

transmitting the words of the data over the subchannels to which they are mapped; and receiving and processing the words from the subchannels to recover the stream of data, wherein partitioning the data comprises deciding, for each word among the successive words, to which of the subchannels the word should be mapped, and

(a) wherein deciding to which of the subchannels the word should be mapped comprises assigning respective numbers of the words to the subchannels so that at any point in time while transmitting the words of the data over the subchannels, a ratio of the numbers of the words that have been assigned to each of a given pair of the subchannels is approximately equal to the ratio of the respective subchannel rates as recited in claims 1 and 28.

Claims 2-10, 13-14 and 22 are allowed because they depend on allowed claim 1, and claims 29-37, 40-41 and 48 are allowed because they depend on allowed claim 28.

(b) wherein deciding to which of the subchannels the word should be mapped comprises interleaving the words among the subchannels in an order that is fully determined by the subchannel rates as recited in claims 15 and 42.

Claim 16 is allowed because it depends on allowed claim 15.

(c) wherein deciding to which of the subchannels the word should be mapped comprises selecting one of the subchannels responsive to an accumulated value indicative of a distribution of the words among the subchannels, and updating the accumulated value responsive to the selected subchannel for use in deciding to which of the subchannels subsequent words should be mapped as recited in claim 17 and 43.

Claims 18-21 and 44-47 are allowed because they depend on allowed claims 17 and 43 respectively.

Art Unit: 2616

2. A method for transmitting a stream of data over a channel made up of a plurality of subchannels having respective subchannel rates, the method comprising:

framing the data in a sequence of data blocks in accordance with a data framing protocol;

partitioning the data among the subchannels, such that responsive to the respective subchannel rates, successive words of the data, including at least first, second and third words in succession, are mapped to the subchannels in alternation, whereby the first word is mapped to a first subchannel, the second word is mapped to second subchannel, and the third word is mapped to one of the first subchannel and a third subchannel;

transmitting the words of the data over the subchannels to which they are mapped; and receiving and processing the words from the subchannels so as to reassemble the data blocks, wherein framing the data comprises framing the blocks in accordance with a data framing protocol applicable to the channel, and wherein framing the blocks comprises, for each block among at least some of the blocks, combining the data from multiple bearers in a payload of the block, and wherein mapping the successive words comprises mapping the words to the subchannels in a manner substantially independent of a partitioning of the payload among the multiple bearers as recited in claims 23 and 49.

Claims 24, 27 and 50, 53 are allowed because they depend on allowed claims 23 and 49 respectively.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
